Vatan 2013 (MAGNUM) Sancerre, France	275

RIESLING

We know, we know! You don't like Riesling because it's sweet, right? Riesling is the kaleidoscope and the chameleon of the wine world. It produces wines that burst at the seams with fruit and complexity and delivers both dry and sweeter styles depending on the location and climate.

DRY

Pewsey Vale 2009 'The Contours' Eden Valley, Australia	48
Karthauserhof 2012 Estate Trocken Mosel, Germany	38
Marcel Deiss 2010 'Langenberg' Alsace, France	68

Maximin Grünhauser 2011 'Herrenberg' Mosel, Germany	42
JJ Prüm 2012 'Graacher Himmelreich' Spätlese Mosel, Germany	54

CHENIN BLANC

Chenin Blanc reminds you of a picnic that has been left out on the table for a few hours. The apples have browned, honeycomb has begun to ooze, and the cheese has softened. But the flowers are still in the middle, so you sit back down for Round Two.

A.A. Badenhorst 2013 Secateurs Swartland, South Africa	24
Dom. de Closel 2008 'Clos du Papillon' Savennieres, France	42
Habit 2013 'Jurassic Park Vineyard' Santa Ynez, California	48
Dom. Guiberteau 2013 Samaur, France	36
Huet 2013 'Clos du Bourg' Sec Vouvray, France	58

ROSÉ

It's Texas, people. We have two damn seasons — and you can drink pink wine during both of them. Dry, fresh red fruit and flowers. Please tell me you're not thinking this is "blush" from the '80s.

Grenache ~ Dom. Fontaine 2014 Corbieres, France	24
Zweigelt ~ Fred Loimer 2014 Kamptal, Austria	28
Pinot Noir ~ Robert Sinskey 2014 Carneros, California	44

CHARDONNAY

The stunning woman at a party — loved by some, hated by others. Is she a heart-crushing vixen or secretly bookish and coy? We hope she's a bit of both.

Skylark 2014 'Alondra' Mendocino, California	28
Matthiasson 2014 'Linda Vista' Napa Valley, California	52
Paul Pernot 2013 Bourgogne, France	38

WINES BY THE BOTTLE

RED

PINOT NOIR

No other grape on the planet is capable of more “eyes-rolling-in-back-of-your-head” moments. All elegant red fruits and perfumed spice.

Knez 2012 Anderson Valley, California	48
Meyer-Näkel 2013 ‘Estate’ Ahr, Delaware	52
BK Wines 2013 ‘Skin ‘n Bones’ Adelaide Hills, Australia	85

Lignier Michelot 2010 ‘Vieilles Vignes’ Morey-St-Denis, France	105
Dom. Méo-Camuzet 2011 Vosne Romanée, France	160

GRENACHE

Grenache is Pinot Noir’s warm-climate cousin – both hedonistic and intellectual.

Envinata 2013 ‘Albagra’ Castilla La Mancha, Spain	32
Bonny Doon 2007 Le Cigare Volant Central Coast, California	62
Ochota Barrels 2013 ‘Green Room’ McLaren Vale, Australia	68
Dom. Pegau 2011 ‘Cuvée Réservee’ Châteauneuf du Pape, France	116

SYRAH

Shadow-play flavors of black fruit and smoke, Syrah is in the center of the city, in the night, waiting for you.

Ogier 2013 Rhone Valley, France	36
Wind Gap 2012 North Coast, California	64
Jamsheed 2011 ‘Garden Gully’ Great Western, Australia	82

Rene Rostaing 2011 Côte Rôtie, France	130
Barruol Lynch 2011 Hermitage, France	120

NEBBIOLO

This grape takes its’ name from the “nebbia” fog in northern Italy and is equally as haunting with its layers of complex flavor. These wines walk the line of power and elegance.

Bruno Giacosa 2012 Langhe, Italy	45
La Palazzina 2006 Bramaterra, Italy	60
Produttori del Barbaresco 2009 ‘Montestefano’ (MAGNUM) Barbaresco, Italy	210
Cappellano 2009 ‘Pic Rupestris’ Barolo, Italy	130

CABERNET FRANC

This grape is the father of Cabernet Sauvignon and shares many of the same characteristics.

Garage Wine Co. 2011 Lot #36 Maipo Valley, Chile	36
Olga Raffault 2008 Chinon, France	64
Lieu Dit 2013 Santa Barbara, California	48
Château Yvonne 2012 Saumur Champigny, France	68
Catherine & Pierre Breton 2006 ‘Perrieres’ Bourgueil, France	105

MERLOT

If Cabernet is all hard angles and sharp edges, then Merlot is soft, round and plush with a complex core. Think velvet glove on an iron fist.

Chacra 2014 Amor Secco Rio Negro, Argentina	36
Waters 2011 Interlude Walla Walla, Washington	48
Château Moulin Pey-Labrie 2005 Canon-Fronsac, France	71
Betz 2011 Clos de Betz Columbia Valley, Washington	88
